Jayme is an articling student at BLG's Toronto office.

As a law student, Jayme engaged in clinic work with the Anti-Discrimination Intensive Program and worked at the Human Rights Legal Support Centre (HRLSC). Jayme was also Co-President of the Osgoode Peer Support Centre, spent time on Student Caucus, and was the Third Year Representative on Osgoode's Legal and Literary Society, leading events for her peers. Before law school, Jayme worked for a boutique personal injury and employment firm in her hometown.

Jayme chose to work at BLG because of the wide range of practice areas for students to gain indispensable knowledge. She had the chance to speak to the firm's students throughout the recruitment process, where it became evident that BLG offers an incredibly supportive environment for students to learn and grow.

In her spare time, Jayme can be found exploring new restaurants and coffee shops in the city, experimenting with gluten-free recipes, reading, and travelling.
