Cait Sainsbury named a fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America

Toronto (October 28, 2022) Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) is pleased to announce that Caitlin Sainsbury, partner and member of BLG's Partnership Board, has been welcomed into the fellowship of the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA). Cait is the first woman from BLG to join the fellowship and joins seven other distinguished BLG litigators in this peer-selected group of top trial lawyers.

Cait has extensive experience acting for corporations and individuals in competition, antitrust and securities class actions; complex commercial disputes; and securities litigation, regulatory proceedings and related internal investigations. She is widely regarded for her commitment to her clients and experience in multi-jurisdictional cases. Cait previously acted as litigation counsel in the enforcement branch at the Ontario Securities Commission.

The Litigation Counsel of America is an invitation-only, honorary society of 3,500 of the best trial lawyers in the legal industry. The LCA recognizes deserving, experienced and highly qualified lawyers, and provides additional sources for professional development, community involvement and the promotion of ethical standards in the practice of law.

Fellows are selected and invited into the fellowship after being evaluated for effectiveness and accomplishment in litigation and trial work, along with ethical reputation.
