As an Articling Student, Samuel is assisting lawyers on a wide variety of tasks within our Business and Disputes groups.

He graduated from law school ranked in the top 10 per cent of his graduating class. Prior to articling, Samuel completed two summer internships at BLG. Samuel has also run a small construction business, written a novel, and taught at the Alberta School of Business prior to entering law.

Samuel chose BLG after recognizing from his interactions with the firm that BLG is unfailingly committed to providing world-class legal services, fostering innovation, and enabling their legal workforce to grow and develop to meet the challenges of the modern legal environment.

In his spare time, Samuel enjoys hiking, writing, and listening to podcasts.
