Alex maintains a broad practice encompassing complex commercial and civil litigation matters for both corporations and individuals. His areas of focus include:

- commercial litigation, including various contractual and arbitration matters;
- shareholder disputes;
- civil fraud;
- maritime and transportation;
- real estate and lease disputes;
- investigations and quasi-criminal matters, including white collar crime and extradition;
- pension distribution issues; and
- labour and employment disputes.

Alex has acted as counsel and assisted with matters before arbitrators, administrative tribunals, and the Superior Courts of Ontario, including matters before the Commercial List and the Divisional Courts.

Alex joined BLG as an associate after summering and articling with the firm. During law school, Alex competed in the Phillip C. Jessup MOOT competition where he received awards for his oral and written advocacy skills.
