Banking & Financial Services
International Business & Human Rights

Noor advises clients on banking and financial matters, including lending, financing transactions and project finance.

She also helps clients with global operations and supply chains meet reporting requirements, develop due diligence policies and procedures and respond to developments in business and human rights.

Before returning as an associate, Noor joined BLG as a summer student and completed her articles at the firm.

When she is not in the office, Noor enjoys exploring the city and curling up with a good book.
