BLG congratulates Capstone on the launch of Canada's first biblically informed ETFs

Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) is pleased to congratulate Capstone Asset Management Inc. (Capstone) on the successful launch of the ETF series units of its two new mutual funds, Capstone Biblically Informed Canadian Equity Fund (TSX: BIVC) and Capstone Biblically Informed U.S. Equity Fund (TSX: BIVU) (collectively, the Funds), on the Toronto Stock Exchange. Each of the Funds is denominated in Canadian dollars and offers ETF series units and mutual fund series units.

With the launch of the Funds, Capstone became one of the first investment fund managers in Canada to introduce broadly accessible biblically informed investment options. In addition, Capstone is one of only two British Columbia-based managers currently offering ETFs as part of their product line-up.

The BLG team advising Capstone included: Jason Brooks, Robert Wallis, Whitney Wakeling, Ashley Wong, Craig Webster and Robert Biggar.

We extend our congratulations to Capstone on this milestone launch and look forward to continuing to support their success in the Canadian investment management industry.

BLG has experience in all aspects of investment management, including: fund formation, listing of ETFs, offering document and continuous disclosure preparation and review, exemptive relief applications and much more. For more information on any of the above topics please feel free to reach out to your usual BLG lawyer or the lawyers named above.
