Alexandra is an articling student at BLG's Toronto office. She has a special interest in health and technology law.

While in law school, Alexandra served as an advocate with the Dalhousie Student Advocacy Service, mentored first- and second-year students, and was a Dalhousie Health Justice Institute Fellow. Prior to joining BLG, Alexandra worked as a Policy and Programs Research Assistant with the Government of Ontario, supporting policy and program development across multiple teams. She also gained valuable experience while working as a support staff at a major Toronto hospital.

Back

Alexandra chose BLG for the firm's diverse practice groups, commitment to professional development and comprehensive mentorship program. During her 2L summer, it became clear that BLG has a collaborative and supportive culture that is eager to create valuable experiences for every student.

In her spare time, Alexandra enjoys spending time with her family and friends, skiing, hiking and trying new restaurants.
