Women face unique pressures in the business world. As a CEO, entrepreneur, mother, wife, mentor and investor, Manjit Minhas has navigated challenges, overcome obstacles, and reconciled personal and professional responsibilities to achieve high profile successes. For Manjit, creating a full, well-rounded life means being brave enough to push the boundaries of your comfort zone and to move beyond the limiting personal and societal definitions of being a woman in business.

Please join us to hear how Manjit addresses the challenges many professionals face in today's hyper-competitive, fast-paced world where work-life balance and true diversity are increasingly important.
