December 01, 2020

As a proud sponsor of APPrO's 2020 annual conference entitled "Powering Resilient Recovery," members of our National Energy Power team came together to share their thoughts on the top electricity markets trends in Canada.

Featured in the video are Shane Freitag, Alan Ross, Jonathan Cocker, Rob Blackstein, Sylvie Bouvette and Mark Rodger.

BLG thanks APPrO and their organizing team for inviting us to share our thoughts during this very important event — which is a forum for innovative and highly-skilled professionals to collaborate in an effort to advance electricity markets in Canada.
