Quin is a summer student at BLG's Toronto office for the 2025 summer term. He is focusing on disputes.

As a law student, Quin is an academic tutor to lower-year peers, and a caseworker with Queen's Legal Aid. There, he provides free legal services to low-income residents of Kingston. Quin has represented clients in cases involving criminal charges, tenancy disputes, employment disputes, administrative penalties, and social benefits appeals.

Quin chose to work at BLG after witnessing first-hand the strong interpersonal culture of the firm during the recruitment process, as well as their commitment to student development and mentorship.

In his spare time, you can find Quin hanging out with friends, listening to comedy, watching football, and yelling at his golf clubs.
