

Sandi Gendi

Articling Student

Ottawa

SGendi@blg.com

613.237.5160 x30598

Sandi is an Articling student in BLG's Ottawa office for the 2024-2025 term. Her focus is on Disputes, Intellectual Property and Corporate law.

Prior to joining, Sandi was a Teaching Assistant and Research Assistant at Queen's University. As a Caseworker and subsequently a Student Supervisor, she was actively involved with the Queen's Business Law Clinic. Sandi previously worked as a Law Clerk at a boutique civil litigation firm.

Back

During law school, Sandi represented Queen's in the Adam F. Fanaki Competition Law Moot and the Davies Corporate/Securities Moot where her team was recognized as having one of the top factums. At Queen's Law, she was selected to the International Economic Law Clinic/ International Trade Law Practicum as part of TradeLab. Sandi was a volunteer with Pro Bono Students Canada, Queen's Chapter, and a volunteer editor for the Canadian Journal of Commercial Arbitration.

Awards & Recognition

- Community Commitment Award (Queen's University)

Education

- JD, Queen's University, 2024
- LLB (Hons), University of Sussex, 2019