Artificial intelligence has moved from experimental to imperative. If your organization uses AI for hiring, performance and workforce management, you're navigating an increasingly complex regulatory landscape where the rules are changing faster than most compliance frameworks can keep up.

Join BLG Labour & Employment lawyers from offices across the country for a webinar designed to equip today's leaders with practical insight and guidance on the legal, regulatory and operational challenges shaping AI in the workplace today.

Topics

- Challenges to Early Adoption in the Workplace
- AI and Human Rights
- Performance Management
- Legislative Update

CPD Information

BC | This course has been accredited for 1.5 hours. Course name: Legal Considerations for Canadian Employers. Course number: N06012026.

ON | This session is eligible for up to 1.5 Substantive Hours.

QC | Please note, the concept of “recognition” or “accreditation” has been abolished. By doing this, the Barreau is trying to make it easier for lawyers to claim mandatory CLE credits without a formal accreditation process. It is now up to individual lawyers to determine the eligibility of a training activity and to declare the hours in their “Dossier de formation en ligne”.
