We are delighted to host the digital assets community for an in-person discussion! The digital assets landscape continues to change.

During our seminar, we will speak with securities regulators and industry leaders to make sense of what is happening now and what can be expected in the coming months.

We hope you will join us for our seminar and stay for our reception to reacquaint yourself with us and our wonderful clients and friends.

Jason Brooks will moderate a fireside chat with Michael Brady, Deputy Director, Capital Markets Regulation, British Columbia Securities Commission to discuss current and emerging regulatory developments, focusing on developments relating to digital asset trading platforms in British Columbia, and Canada in general.

Following the fireside chat, Julie Bogle will moderate a discussion of emerging trends and challenges in digital assets with industry experts including:

- Ruben Sahakyan, Director - Diversified Industries, Consumer & Retail, Technology, Digital Assets at Stifel
- Blake Allan, Partner - International Tax Services at MNP
- Laurie Goldbach, Tax lawyer at Borden Ladner Gervais
