Kiwa ASI expands its Canadian presence with acquisition of TSLC

On January 20, 2026, Kiwa ASI, a leading provider of food safety inspections, certifications, training, and consulting services, announced its acquisition of TSLC, a Canadian certification body with experience in CanadaGAP audits and certifications. This strategic partnership expands Kiwa ASI's footprint in Canada and strengthens its presence in the agriculture sector of the food industry.

With experienced staff and trusted auditors located across Canada, TSLC is one of five approved licensed certification bodies for the CanadaGAP program, holding more than 30 per cent market share, making them the second-largest certification body for CanadaGAP.

BLG represented Kiwa with a team led by Stefan Timms that included Valérie Olivier and Claudie Fournier-Turmel (Corporate), Odessa O'Dell (Labour & Employment), Jason Mueller-Neuhaus and Karine Papillon (Intellectual Property), and Olivia Ruvo (Tax).
