Claudie is a law student at our Montréal office. She joined in the summer of 2021. She assists lawyers from different practice groups and has a particular interest in the Corporate Commercial practice area.

Prior to joining BLG, Claudie worked as an intern for the legal department of a construction company, which enabled her to acquire skills in legal research and drafting.

Back

During her studies, Claudie was elected events vice-president for the Association des Étudiants en Droit de l'Université du Québec à Montréal. During her mandate, she created a mentoring program for new law students.
