

Why BLG?

Our paraprofessionals provide innovative and exceptional service to our clients. They collaborate on exciting projects and are integral to BLG's success. We welcome you to join our dynamic team.

Unmatched formal training

When you join BLG, you have access to customized training programs to support your ideal career path. We also provide continuing education opportunities, including tuition assistance.

Build a dynamic career

Our talent framework for paraprofessionals helps you navigate your career at BLG, with an eye to advancement in the firm. We offer personalized support and insights about your career path.

Exposure to cutting-edge innovation

We are exploring and testing transformative ideas, processes and technologies as we build the law firm of the future—and want you to be a part of it.

Work as part of a national team

With five offices across Canada, we operate as one collaborative team. Right from the start, you get to work on exciting projects with colleagues from Vancouver to Montréal.

Get involved in the community

Community involvement is a key part of BLG's culture, and we encourage our people to support causes that are important to them. We have a longstanding commitment to pro bono work, make charitable donations, support academic scholarships and offer the BLG Reads to Kids program.

Work on high-level legal matters

Challenge is motivating! You'll have many opportunities to work on projects that grow your skills and relationships.

Be part of a client team

Our people are key to our clients' success. Take pride in being involved right from the start!

Participate meaningfully in firm life

There are many ways you can contribute to the firm and the community through leadership and citizenship activities. Are you ready to get started?
