Oil & Gas Data: Who Owns It and How Do You Protect It?

February 26, 2019
11:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. ET

Centennial Place West Tower
3rd floor, 250 5th St SW Calgary, Alberta, Canada T2P 0R3

Please join BLG for a practical workshop to learn about data ownership and innovative legal approaches to protect and monetize your corporate oil and gas data.

Matti Lemmens, partner in our commercial litigation group and national expert in oil & gas data protection, and Bruce Lawrence, partner in our securities and capital markets group and former regional chair of our oil and gas focus group, will provide an overview on the subject and discuss approaches to managing these emerging issues.

Topics include

- Who actually owns your data?
- How is ownership of data determined?
- How do you commercially protect your data?
- What rights do you have to monetize data you collect or generate?

Please respond by February 21, 2019.
