Chlöe Shahinian

Summer Law Student

 LOCATION

Toronto

Chlöe is a summer student at BLG's Toronto office for the 2025 summer term.

As a 3L law student, Chlöe is the Managing Editor of the McGill Law Journal. As part of her managerial responsibilities at the Journal, she assists in the Journal's Indigenous Legal Citations Project. Chlöe is also the Blog Coordinator of the McGill Centre for Human Rights and Legal Pluralism's blog and works as a Senior Caseworker at the Legal Information Clinic at McGill. Chlöe is currently completing a student clerkship at the Superior Court of Quebec, Montreal Division, where she is clerking for Justice Michelin and Justice Piché. She has previously interned in the Strategic Litigation department of the Center for Health, Human Rights and Development in Uganda, and has also worked as a Junior Policy Analyst at Global Affairs Canada.

Chlöe is returning for her second summer at BLG and looks forward to doing more work in commercial litigation.

In Chlöe's spare time you can find her doing reformer pilates, trying new restaurants (and recipes), and going on long city walks.
