Giuliana is a summer student at BLG's Toronto office for the 2026 summer term. She is focusing on business law.

As a law student, Giuliana works as a Student Caseworker with Community Legal Services of Ottawa and as a Research Assistant focusing on Aboriginal Law and land use. She also serves as a peer mentor and leads initiatives in executive roles with the Canadian Hispanic Bar Association and the Business Law Society. Before law school, Giuliana worked at major Canadian banks and a Toronto-based shareholder advisory firm.

Giuliana chose BLG for its leading corporate commercial practice and complex domestic and international disputes work. She was also drawn to the firm's strong identity and genuine culture, where lawyers actively participate in the legal community and the firm prioritizes advancing inclusion.

In her spare time, Giuliana enjoys visiting family in Chile, where she grew up, playing with her pet dachshund Eva, and reading books about the obsessive world of wine.
