As a law student, Rose carries out legal research on a variety of topics and provides general support to lawyers.

She has a keen interest in civil and commercial litigation, focusing particularly on liability issues in class actions.

Prior to joining BLG, Rose worked for the Federal Government, in the Department of National Defence's Legal Services. She previously worked as a paralegal student at the DPCP. During her studies, she completed assistantships with professors specializing in law of civil liability and private international law.
