Shelter(s) in Place: Community responses to HIV and Gender-Based Violence during the COVID-19 crisis

Give a Day to World AIDS is a campaign of The Stephen Lewis Foundation. It is a simple and powerful response to the AIDS pandemic in sub-Saharan Africa.

This year, the webinar will focus on the increase in gender based violence (GBV) as a result of COVID-19, and how this has impacted the partners at The Stephen Lewis Foundation in general and specifically their work on HIV. BLG is a proud sponsor of the event.
