BLG's first session of the series made it clear that the financial services industry needs to prepare now to address the needs of older investors, and meet the expectations of their regulators.

We have assembled a panel of industry experts who are directly engaged in meeting the needs of an aging population, and invite them to identify issues that require urgent attention and share their practical advice on how to address them.

Moderator:

Arthur Fish, Partner, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP

Michelle Alexander, Vice President — Investment Industry Association of Canada
Harold Geller, Partner, Financial Loss Advisory Group — MBC Law Professional Corporation
Shawn Graham, Director, Regulatory Investigations, Advisory and Insurance — RBC Wealth Management
