October Sessions

As technology continues to advance at a rapid pace, data protection and privacy issues continue to create an increasing number of business, legal and reputational risks. From smart technologies and artificial intelligence to issues around global compliance, digital consent and online reputations, organizations will need to understand the legal frameworks and best practices to navigate these issues and remain secure.

Please join us for a number of presentations in October that will bring together leaders and experts in a variety of fields who will share their knowledge and insights on how to best manage privacy in an increasingly connected world.

Global Risks – The General Data Protection Regulation and the California Consumer Privacy Act

Date: October 28, 1 p.m. - 2 p.m.

Elisa Henry — co-lead of the firm's Privacy & Data Protection Group — as well as François Joli-Coeur will share their insights regarding how to best approach global privacy compliance projects and avoid common pitfalls.

Register now for one or all three of our sessions.

Please watch for additional invitations highlighting our next few presentations in November and December.
