As a Summer Law Student, Anthony is assisting lawyers on a wide variety of tasks within our Business and Disputes groups.

Prior to enrolling at the Peter A. Allard School of Law at UBC, Anthony earned a PhD in English Literature, as well as master's degrees in English literature and political science. Following his first year at Allard, Anthony completed a 6-month internship at the United Nations in Geneva, Switzerland.

Anthony will be clerking at the British Columbia Supreme Court for the 2026-2027 term.

Anthony chose BLG for its strong mentorship culture and its leadership in energy and natural resource law.

In his spare time, Anthony enjoys exploring Vancouver's culinary scene and is an active member of the local soccer community.
