

BLG named Canadian Law Firm of the Year for derivatives (Regulatory)

Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) provides high-value advice to address our clients' business concerns, and is home to one of the largest and most experienced derivatives practices in North America. We are thrilled to have our efforts recognized as Canadian Law Firm of the Year in the Regulatory category, at the GlobalCapital Americas Derivatives Awards 2020. BLG was also a finalist in the Transactions category.

BLG's Derivatives Group is a multi-disciplinary team of experienced professionals that serve market participants in virtually every industry in the global derivatives market. Participants in the market turn to our team to assist them with novel derivative development, negotiation and documentation, or to represent them before regulators

The GlobalCapital Americas Derivatives Awards honours the companies, services and products that have improved the United States, Canadian and Latin American derivatives markets over the past year. Nominations are based on a cross-market poll and GlobalCapital's editorial board selects the winners.
