The Future of iGaming in Ontario

June 18, 2021

Significant changes are on the horizon for Ontario's gaming industry. BLG hosted an engaging fireside discussion with the key policymakers behind Ontario's new iGaming marketplace, with an expert panel:

- Hon. Doug Downey, Attorney General of Ontario
- Birgitte Sand, Commercial Project Lead for iGaming
- Martha Otton, Executive Director at iGaming Ontario Project (AGCO)
- Stan Cho, Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Finance and MPP Willowdale

BLG National Managing Partner and CEO, John G. Murphy, gave opening remarks and the session was moderated by BLG Partner Cameron A. MacDonald.

Since initiating a formal consultation process in March 2021, the Ontario Government and the AGCO have been actively engaging with industry stakeholders on the critical components of the new iGaming framework.

Our panel of distinguished guests together with experts from BLG's Sports & Gaming Law group discussed the status of those consultations and the vision behind the model that is targeted to be unveiled later this year for a competitive iGaming marketplace in Ontario.

As Canada's largest full-service law firm, BLG is delighted to introduce our experts and key decision makers on a topic of such significant importance.
