Jordan is a Senior Associate in BLG's Corporate Group in Montréal. His practice focuses on private M&A, advising domestic and international private equity sponsors, strategic acquirors, portfolio companies, shareholders and private businesses on domestic and cross-border acquisitions, dispositions, reorganizations and other complex commercial transactions. He also has broad experience advising distressed companies and holders of distressed debt on distressed M&A transactions.

Jordan regularly assists clients throughout the transaction lifecycle, including with structuring considerations, legal due diligence, transaction documentation, negotiation strategy and post-closing matters.

Clients value Jordan’s practical, responsive and business-oriented approach to complex legal issues. He focuses on identifying key risks, advancing commercial solutions and helping clients move transactions efficiently from diligence through closing.
