Current considerations for PE-Backed companies beyond MAC and force majeure clauses

May 21, 2020

COVID-19 is continuing to disrupt business-as-usual around the world. Lenders and borrowers of all sizes are grappling with material issues both inside and outside the parameters of their credit agreements.

Recorded May 21, 2020, this is a candid discussion addressing the current and future environment as it relates to:

- trends, concerns and issues from the perspectives of both the lenders and borrowers;
- relationship dynamics between lenders and borrowers beyond the paperwork; and
- predictions on where the market is going for PE-backed borrowers.
