Legal Research & Written Advocacy

Complex disputes and transactions may require sophisticated legal research and written advocacy to achieve the best possible outcome.

BLG's Research and Written Advocacy Team of dedicated legal researchers provides sophisticated analysis, strategy, and legal research and writing assistance and support to BLG lawyers on significant matters.

Our Research and Written Advocacy lawyers are integral to BLG client service teams and ensure that clients receive the best work product available within the Firm.

Heather Pessione is BLG's Research and Written Advocacy Partner and has been our Toronto Office Research Partner since 2014.

Heather oversees our team of four experienced research lawyers across the country, who provide legal research services and collaborate with our lawyers in a variety of ways, including:

- developing legal strategy
- conducting and managing complex research
- preparing legal opinions
- drafting materials for all levels of court, for tribunal matters, and for arbitrations
- furthering thought leadership by authoring or co-authoring various Insights
