Deepak has extensive experience advising public and private companies, financial institutions and private equity groups on corporate and securities law issues.

As a trusted advisor, Deepak assists clients with all legal aspects of their business, including corporate governance, strategic corporate development, complex agreements, capital market regulatory compliance, continuous disclosure obligations, initial public offerings and stock exchange listings. His transactional experience includes domestic and international public and private company financings, joint venture arrangements, takeover bids, statutory plans of arrangement, asset purchases, and sales and corporate reorganizations.

Deepak has worked with clients in a broad range of industries, including mining, renewable energy, power, technology, transportation, media, retail, telecommunications, hospitality, and financial services. In addition, he often advises foreign enterprises with respect to entry-to Canada matters. Deepak has also acted for senior levels of government and Crown corporations with respect to procurement matters and on the design and implementation of corporate resource management solutions.
