Abigail is an articling student at BLG's Toronto office for the 2026-2027. She is returning after two summers with BLG.

Abigail graduated in the top 2% of Osgoode Hall Law School's JD Class of 2026. She received academic excellence awards for ranking first in her section and second overall in 1L. She completed a placement at the Human Rights Legal Support Centre through Osgoode's Anti-Discrimination Intensive Program, acted as a caseworker for the Community & Legal Aid Services Program, and was appointed as a Dean's Fellow to mentor first-year students. Prior to law school, Abigail worked as a research assistant at a labour and employment boutique.

Abigail thoroughly enjoyed both of her summers at BLG. She returns to the firm for her articles because of its welcoming environment, incredible mentorship, and unwavering support for students. She looks forward to continuing to learn from the firm's exceptional lawyers and gaining experience in a wide range of practice areas through BLG's non-rotational program.

Outside of work, Abigail loves baking sweet treats, travelling, and spending time with her maltipoo puppy, Lucky.
