Sarah is a 1L student at BLG's Toronto office for the 2026 summer term. She is focusing on business law.

As a law student at Western, Sarah is a First-Year Representative of the Western Law Business Society and the Jewish Law Students Association. Sarah also volunteers with Legal Line through Pro Bono Students Canada and is the recipient of the Chief Justice Richard Wagner Award. Prior to joining BLG, Sarah worked as an investments analyst at one of Canada's largest REITs.

Sarah chose to work at BLG because of the genuine and supportive culture she experienced through her interactions with the lawyers at the firm. BLG's emphasis on student development, along with the opportunity to be involved in industry-leading work early in her career, further reinforced her decision.

In her free time, Sarah enjoys cooking and trying new recipes, crafting, and travelling with friends and family.
