Colin is a highly regarded corporate and capital markets lawyer who advises on complex transactions across a broad range of industries in both domestic and cross-border contexts. Drawing on extensive experience in mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, and corporate governance, he serves as a strategic advisor to public and private companies, boards of directors, special committees, senior executives, and investors navigating critical business and legal matters.

In his M&A practice, Colin represents acquirors and targets in sophisticated public and private transactions, including friendly and hostile takeovers, proxy contests, strategic reorganizations, and other complex corporate transactions. He is valued for his practical judgment, commercial approach, and ability to guide clients through high-stakes situations.

In his corporate finance practice, Colin advises issuers and investment dealers on a wide range of capital-raising transactions across debt and equity markets. He has extensive experience supporting clients through every stage of the financing lifecycle, from early-stage fundraising and private placements to public offerings and other strategic financing initiatives, helping organizations access capital and achieve their growth objectives.
