Aviation

From corporate commercial to litigation and union-related issues, it's key to have a specialized legal team who can help aviation industry players address their most important issues and provide pragmatic advice.

We have the strongest multidisciplinary aviation practice in Canada. We keep an eye on issues affecting the industry, including consolidation, environmental concerns, pressures from competitors, and new and disruptive technologies.

We can assist with:

- financing and leasing aircraft and aircraft engines
- sales and leaseback
- aviation insurance
- airline bankruptcy, insolvency and restructuring proceedings
- litigation
- dispute resolution
- regulatory matters
- managing relationships with Transport Canada and the Canadian Transportation Agency
- privacy
- cyber and data security

We advocate for our clients in courtrooms, tribunals, boardrooms and at the negotiation table. Our clients include:

- general aviation operators
- airlines
- commercial air services
- airports
- aviation insurers
- OEMs

We work with colleagues in specialized areas to anticipate your needs and ensure comprehensive, cost-effective services.
