Renaud Gravel is the manager of Professional Recruitment and Student Programs at BLG's Montréal office. As such, he is responsible for lateral lawyer recruiting and managing student and articling student programs. He works closely with students and articling students to help them grow professionally.

Strongly committed to diversity and inclusion, Renaud sits on the board of directors of the Canadian Association of 2SLGBTQ+ Lawyers and is also part of the organizing committee for the PRISME conference, an annual inclusive and collaborative forum focused on current issues facing 2SLGBTQ+ people in the legal industry.

Prior to joining the Talent team, Renaud was a litigation associate at BLG, mainly in insurance and construction law. He has actively contributed to Talent initiatives, especially as a mentor to students, articling students and junior lawyers, as well as a member of the recruitment committee.
