

Federal Financial Institutions Legislative and Regulatory Reporter - July 2016

August 25, 2016

The Reporter provides a monthly summary of Canadian federal legislative and regulatory developments of relevance to federally regulated financial institutions. It does not address Canadian provincial financial services legislative and regulatory developments, although this information is tracked by BLG and can be provided on request. In addition, purely technical and administrative changes (such as changes to reporting forms) are not covered.

The letter identifies a number of areas that warrant close attention by mortgage lenders and insurers. OSFI's supervisory scrutiny for residential mortgage underwriting will place an even greater emphasis on confirming that the internal controls and risk management	Effective practices of mortgage lenders and insurers are sound and take into account market developments. The letter also provides an update to industry on initiatives announced by OSFI in a December 2015 letter aimed at strengthening the measurement of capital held by the major banks and mortgage insurers.
