Sophie is a 2026 articling student at BLG's Vancouver office.

Prior to attending law school, Sophie received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminology with a minor in Psychology from Western University. She has been actively involved in advocating for women through her volunteer work at women's shelters. Sophie is also fluent in French.

In law school, Sophie earned the Dean's Course Prize in Contracts and Evidence, and serves as a mentor to 1L students.

Sophie chose to work at BLG for its focus on mentorship, strong collegial environment, and exceptional reputation in business law.

In her spare time, Sophie enjoys playing ice hockey, attending spin classes, traveling, cooking, and learning languages.
