

Project Finance

A successful project needs the advice and advocacy of a strategically-minded legal team who can structure and implement the best financing solutions, streamline processes and drive the completion of transactions with maximum value for money.

We provide forward-thinking project financing advice and services to our clients engaged in the procurement, development, financing and acquisition of power and public infrastructure projects.

We advise on a range of projects, including:

- power projects (natural gas, wind, solar, hydroelectric, biomass and cogen)
- roads
- bridges
- transportation
- hospitals and other social infrastructure projects
- projects with First Nations' participation

We collaborate with our clients to structure and implement the best possible financing solutions, including:

- mini-perm bank facilities
- unrated private placements
- institutional loan facilities
- rated private placement bond solutions
- long-term bank debt
- subordinated or mezzanine debt
- other forms of public or private debt financing

As a multidisciplinary firm, we collaborate with lawyers from related specialties, including:

- electricity markets
- construction
- engineering
- infrastructure
- tax
- real property
- environmental and regulatory law

Our clients include:

- project developers
- equity sponsors
- concessionaires
- lenders and debt arrangers
- underwriters and investors
- Indigenous communities
- governments
- governmental agencies
- authorities responsible for the procurement and delivery of national power and public infrastructure projects
