Alex is an articling student at BLG's Toronto office for the 2025-2026. He is returning after two summers with BLG. His focus is on tax law.

Prior to becoming a law student, Alex worked as an accountant at a big-four accounting firm, KPMG LLP, where he obtained his CPA designation. Alex led large scale audits of public and private companies, gaining vital experience in the areas of financial reporting and taxation. During his undergraduate degree, Alex was the captain of his varsity Track & Field team and volunteered by creating a program that taught Aboriginal youth financial literacy. At Osgoode Hall Law School, Alex acted as the president of the Osgoode Tax Law Association, was a national semi-finalist in the Donald G.H. Bowman National Tax Moot Court Competition and graduated top 10 in his class.

Alex really enjoyed his two summers at BLG. He is returning because of the great people he worked with, BLG's strong reputation, and the type of work that BLG allows him to work on.

In Alex's free time he enjoys running, traveling, fantasy sports, and poker. Additionally, as a foodie and a movie buff, Alex is always looking for good recommendations.
