Paige is a 2025 articling student at BLG's Vancouver office.

Prior to attending law school, Paige obtained a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of British Columbia, specializing in finance. During this period, she completed work terms in accounting and commercial banking. In her second year of law school, Paige acted as a student clinician for the Business Law Clinic.

Paige chose to work at BLG because of the firm's welcoming environment and the opportunity it provided to explore a wide range of practice areas.

In her spare time, Paige enjoys running, yoga, and travelling.
