Philippe Boisvert becomes President of Young Canadian Arbitration Practitioners (YCAP)

Montréal (February 21, 2023) – Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) Counsel Philippe Boisvert is the new President of Young Canadian Arbitration Practitioners (YCAP).

Philippe has a broad commercial practice encompassing complex domestic and cross-border disputes, notably in the fields of construction and infrastructure and in the enforcement of arbitral awards in Canada. A Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (FCIArb), he regularly represents clients before all judicial bodies in Québec and arbitration tribunals (both domestic and international), after practising in Europe for a number of years.

Today, Philippe becomes President of YCAP after serving as a board member since 2020.

About Young Canadian Arbitration Practitioners

YCAP was launched by a group of young Canadian arbitration practitioners in 2004. It comprises approximately 200 members in Canada and around the world. Its mission is to promote interest in and understanding of international arbitration, particularly in Canada, among young lawyers and other interested young professionals, as well as to provide them with professional development opportunities and networking opportunities (source: YCAP).

For more information, please contact:

Kate Gifford
Borden Ladner Gervais LLP
KGifford@blg.com
416.350.6540

BLG | Canada’s Law Firm

As the largest, truly full-service Canadian law firm, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) delivers practical legal advice for domestic and international clients across more practices and industries than any Canadian firm. With over 800 lawyers, intellectual property agents and other professionals, BLG serves the legal needs of businesses and institutions across Canada and beyond – from M&A and capital markets, to disputes, financing, and trademark & patent registration.

blg.com

© 2026 Borden Ladner Gervais LLP. Borden Ladner Gervais LLP is an Ontario Limited Liability Partnership.