Richard's practice focuses on corporate and commercial law, including representing lenders and borrowers involved in domestic and cross-border lending transactions.

His experience includes bilateral and syndicated lending, acquisition financing, equipment financing, real estate financing, and inter-creditor arrangements.

Prior to joining BLG, Richard served as a senior associate at a leading national law firm.

Experience

- Represented TeraGo Networks Inc. and TeraGo Inc. in a secured debt transaction, comprising an approximately C$31 million term loan refinancing, together with a rights offering and private placement raising approximately C$16 million in new equity. Among other things, the transaction included the assignment of existing loans and the appointment of a new administrative agent, followed by an amendment and restatement of the existing credit facility, and post-closing syndication to multiple private lenders.
