Disputes

Jillian is an associate in the Disputes group with a focus on health law. She practices in civil litigation and administrative disputes, and advises clients on health regulatory issues.

Prior to practicing law, Jillian obtained her Master of Occupational Therapy and worked with a national private healthcare company. This background provides her with a grounded understanding of healthcare delivery and regulation, which she draws upon in her legal practice. During law school, Jillian developed significant advocacy experience through her involvement in clinical and pro bono initiatives.

Jillian summered and articled with BLG before returning as an associate.
