Jacob focuses his practice on both tort liability and employment-related litigation.

He advises clients such as municipalities, police, insurance companies and their insureds in matters relating to property damage, non-repair of roads and sidewalks, and motor vehicle accidents. He defends municipal police services against claims alleging negligent investigation, malicious prosecution and charter violations.

Jacob also has experience conducting workplace investigations. He represents institutional clients on employment-related litigation in the Ontario Superior Court and before the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario. Jacob summered with BLG in 2018 and completed his articles with the firm prior to being called to the bar in 2020.
