Rosalind recently retired from the partnership. Prior to her retirement, she practised corporate and securities law, with a focus on financial services, mining sector financings and acquisitions, and corporate governance.

She advised issuers, underwriters and investors on debt and equity offerings and investments, including:

- domestic and trans-border public offerings and private placements
- capital restructurings
- corporate and securities law compliance

She also represented government bodies, private-sector corporations, investors and lenders in debt offerings, project financings and public-private partnerships.

Rosalind was seconded to the Ontario Securities Commission in 1988-1990 as staff counsel in the corporate finance, enforcement and takeover bid branches. While there, she participated in various policy initiatives, including the drafting of Commission Notice re Use of Special Warrants, 12 OSCB 2168.
