BLG welcomes Deepak Gill back to the firm as a partner in Vancouver

Vancouver, May 7, 2025 - Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) is pleased to announce that Deepak Gill has rejoined the firm as a Partner in our Vancouver office, effective May 2, 2025.

A recognized corporate lawyer, Deepak brings extensive experience advising public and private companies, boards and global investors on sophisticated transactions and strategic corporate development initiatives. His practice focuses on M&A, capital markets transactions, joint ventures, governance, regulatory compliance and cross-border financings—particularly in the mining and natural resources, renewables, power, technology and investment banking sectors.

Deepak has a long-standing reputation for guiding clients through high-profile domestic and international transactions, including IPOs, M&A, public and private financings, and strategic joint ventures. He has acted for companies at all stages of growth, from emerging ventures to multinational enterprises as well as senior levels of government and Crown corporations on complex contract and resource management matters.

Deepak is consistently recognized by leading legal directories, including Lexpert, Best Lawyers in Canada, Who's Who Legal and Lexology Index Canada (Mining) for his outstanding work in the mining and natural resources sectors.

"We are thrilled to welcome Deepak back to BLG," said Prema Thiele, Corporate & Capital Markets (CCM) National Leader. "His deep industry knowledge, market experience and cross-border expertise will be invaluable to our clients across sectors and his return further strengthens our Vancouver and national CCM and Mining practices."

Deepak will work closely with BLG colleagues across Canada, including corporate, capital markets, M&A, energy and regulatory teams to provide clients with tailored, strategic advice that supports their business and growth objectives in Canada and internationally.

Please join us in welcoming Deepak Gill back to BLG.
