Top 10 Legal Risks for Business in 2018

February 02, 2018

BLG is pleased to release its annual thought leadership report, forecasting the top 10 legal risks for business in 2018. The report provides the Canadian business community with deeper insight into the key trends and regulatory changes that will have legal implications in the year ahead.

Top 10 Legal Risks for Business in 2018 report features commentary from the firm's lawyers on the many legal challenges Canadian businesses are likely to face in the year ahead. These challenges are far reaching and include cybersecurity and privacy, infrastructure, legalization of cannabis, failure to consider Aboriginal and treaty rights, tax reform, trade agreements and cross-border commerce, sexual harassment in the workplace, environment and climate change, and class actions.
