Lauren is a 2026 articling student at BLG's Vancouver office.

Prior to attending law school, Lauren received a Bachelor of Health Sciences from Queen's University. During her first year of law school, she worked at the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner where she assisted legal counsel for the Commissioner on a wide variety of tasks.

Lauren chose to work at BLG because of the firm's collaborative work environment, strong mentorship program, and excellent national reputation.

In her spare time, Lauren enjoys reading, pilates, and trying new restaurants.
