

Leading International Trade Team Joins BLG

Members of the top-ranked team bolster specialty area at Canada's largest firm

Toronto (May 31, 2018) — BLG provides industry-leading expertise and service in all areas of business law. To further strengthen our team, we are delighted to welcome our newest partners Milos Barutciski, Jesse Goldman and Matthew Kronby from the Band 1 Chambers Global and Canada ranked trade law team.

"In an increasingly complex global trade environment, we are pleased to add this premier team to further complement BLG's strength across Canada. We look forward to offering clients the depth of knowledge and shared experience of these highly regarded professionals," said Sean Weir, National Managing Partner.

The newest members to our International Trade team are:

Milos Barutciski — Milos Barutciski has helped define international trade practice in Canada throughout his 30+ year career advising Fortune 500 and leading Canadian and global companies in all aspects of international business regulation and compliance. He is widely recognized by clients and legal directories as a leading practitioner and applies his wealth of experience to assist clients in managing complex cross-border risks, disputes and negotiations.

Jesse Goldman — As the incoming Chair of the International Trade Committee of the Inter-Pacific Bar Association ("IPBA") and Canadian delegate to the Business and Industry Advisory Committee to the OECD China Task Force, Jesse Goldman is one of Canada's most sought-after legal advisors for cross-Pacific trade and investment matters. Clients around the globe rely on him for his breadth of knowledge and exceptional strategic advice designed to maximize their commercial opportunities from international trade and investment. He is sought after as legal counsel in a wide range of international trade matters, ranging from disputes to planning and compliance. He has been counsel to commercial clients, trade associations, and sovereign governments in more than 130 trade remedy investigations.

Matthew Kronby — Matthew Kronby has been a key player in many of the highest-profile international free-trade developments in recent years. He was the Director General of the Government of Canada's Trade Law Bureau and served as the Bureau manager and lead counsel for more than 15 years. He has led his clients' legal teams in trade disputes relating to softwood lumber, aircraft subsidies, biotech products, automotive trade and other investment arbitration matters under NAFTA.

These strong additions to BLG highlight the Firm's continued commitment to top talent and gold standard client service. As a firm, BLG continues to innovate and plan for the future in order to help our clients mitigate risk, seize opportunities and overcome business challenges.

For more information, please contact:

Tamara Costa

National Director, Marketing and Communications

Borden Ladner Gervais LLP

TCosta@blg.com

416.350.2642

BLG | Canada's Law Firm

As the largest, truly full-service Canadian law firm, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) delivers practical legal advice for domestic and international clients across more practices and industries than any Canadian firm. With over 725 lawyers, intellectual property agents and other professionals, BLG serves the legal needs of businesses and institutions across Canada and beyond – from M&A and capital markets, to disputes, financing, and trademark & patent registration.

blg.com

© 2025 Borden Ladner Gervais LLP. Borden Ladner Gervais LLP is an Ontario Limited Liability Partnership.