Gabriel is a dispute lawyer in the insurance, professional liability and construction sectors. He handles coverage determinations in property and casualty, civil liability and cyber insurance.

He acts for insurers and insureds in the context of complex coverage disputes or in defending liability claims stemming from insurance losses. He has been involved in various class actions initiated against insurers in the wake of COVID-19.

He regularly appears before Québec courts regarding insurance claims and handles examinations and mediations.

Gabriel also specializes in banking litigation and advises clients in consumer protection, insolvency and restructuring.
